

PR

3404

A26+

1716a

CORNELL UNIVERSITY
LIBRARY

BOUGHT WITH THE INCOME
OF THE SAGE ENDOWMENT FUND GIVEN IN 1891 BY HENRY WILLIAMS SAGE

Cornell University Library
PR 3404.A26 1716a

The address of the majistrates and Town

3 1924 013 174 499 clm, ove1

Cornell University
Library

The original of this book is in the Cornell University Library.

There are no known copyright restrictions in the United States on the use of the text.

<http://www.archive.org/details/cu31924013174499>

THE WRITINGS OF DANIEL DEFOE

MOORE N

TITLE THE ADDRESS OF THE MAGISTRATES AND TOWN COUNCIL OF

ABERDEEN WITH REMARKS.

DATE

LIBRARY BM.

UNIVERSITY MICROFILMS LIMITED
REMAX HOUSE ALFRED PLACE LONDON WC1

The Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Aberdeen, to the Pretender.

With Remarks upon the said address,

V V E YOUR ever Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates, and Town Council, and other Loyal, Subjects Citizens of Aberdeen, do heartily Congratulate Your Arrival to this your Native and Hereditary Kingdom. Heaven very often Enhances our Blessings by Disappointments; And Your Majesty's safe Arrival after such a Train of Difficulties and so many Attempts, makes us not doubt but that GOD is propitious to Your just Cause.

AS Your Majesty's Arrival was Seasonable, so it was Surprising. We were happy and we knew it not. We had the blessing we wish for, yet intencable till now, that your Majesty has been pleased to let us know that we are the happyed, and as so, we shall always endeavour to be the most Loyal of,

May it please your Majesty, &c.

The Pretenders Answer.

I AM very Sensible of the Duty and Zeal ye express for Me in this Address; And ye may assure your selves of my Protection.

R E M A R K S.

I T will easily be granted by all Men of Sense, that this Address from the Episcopal Laitie of Aberdeen is as foolish as that from the Episcopal Clergy, or their Diocess was knavish; and it is not doubted but the Addressers of both sorts are by this time sensible, that their Pretender was a broken Reed, which instead of supporting and protecting has utterly ruined them.

To shew the Ingratitude of the Scots Episcopal Party, and that no favour or Lenity is capable of gaining them, 'tis fit to be observed, that many of the Episcopal Clergy of the Province of Aberdeen, and else where, were continued in their Churches and Benefices, notwithstanding the Revolution, and that Presbyterian Government was made the National Establishment, and they were exempted by Law from any Conformity to the Established Church. A great many of them do still enjoy that Favour, and some of them without to much as swearing Allegiance to the Civil Government: Yet this Lenity was so far from having a good Effect upon them that in Defiance of Law, when the old Episcopal Incumbents died, others ordained by the Bishops that were excommunicated by Act of Parliament, did frequently intrude into their Churches, and were continued there by the Influence and Power of their Jacobite Friends. Others set up Meeting-Houses, and in the last Reign, Acts of Parliament were vis & modis procured to give them a Toleration, and restore Lay-Patronages, by which they were enabled to set up Nurseries for the Pretender, and now they have openly taken off the Mask.

The Earl of Panmure who joined the Rebels, and was wounded at the Battle of Dunblain, is Patron of about 52 Churches, the Jacobite Masters of the College of Aberdeen are Patrons of a considerable Number, and the Earl of Mar a Sheriff principal of the Shire of Aberdeen, is Patron of several more, by this the World may judge what was the Real design of the Act for Tolerating the Episcopal Clergy and Restoring Lay-patronages in Scotland. We have now seen the dismal Fruits of it, for the Episcopal Clergy in the North side of Forth have without exception (as far as I can learn) Jettyed the Pretenders interest, and Prayed for him as King; And this week, the Rebels have made a diligent Search for the Presbyterian Ministers within the Bounds under their Command, in order to have carried them Prisoners to Perth, because they would not Read a Proclamation which the Pretender issued, to observe a Thanksgiving for his safe arrival, which was punctually kept on the 26.th inst, by the Episcopal Party in these parts.

